The applicant for passport Kolangara Ebrahim son of Mammad now in Chittagong, East Pakistan is a native of Koodlu village, Kasaragod taluk. He left this district about 4 years back and was working in Bombay and Calcutta for some time. He does not possess any property in this district and his financia status cannot be said to be satisfactory as he is working only a salesman and has not been sending any money home. His father, mother and sisters and are still in this district. Kolangara Ebrahim is not an evacuee and no proceedings under the Evacuee Properties act is pending against him. He did not come to adverse notice politically or socially in this district. His parents are anxious to see him. I have no objection to his being granted an India-Pakistan passport.

2. The application and photo received with the Government memo are enclosed.

Yours faithfully,
